Our sessions on Friday evening and Saturday morning will encourage you in ways that will revitalize your small groups and reconnect your congregation to your local community.

UNIQUE ELEMENTS

Thirdmill Seminary is a partnership between the online classroom and on-the-field gospel ministers. Combining best practices of distance education with contextual expertise of local mentors, each course offers spiritual formation activities, graduate-level reading and discussion forums.

Built on Thirdmill's trusted video lessons, credentialed faculty at Thirdmill Seminary are committed to providing "affordable access to a quality, multilingual theological education" where the global church teaches and learns with the global church.

MEET THE STAFF

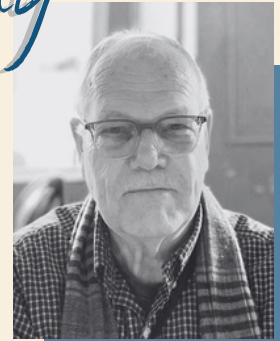

Richard Ramsay

Dr. Richard Ramsay is a missionary who uses his education, experience and gifts to equip Spanish-speaking, Christian leaders with a love for Scripture and an ability to share its good news effectively with others.

Educated with both master and doctoral degrees, Dr. Ramsay served the church in Chile for two decades, starting churches and helping start two seminaries. For two more decades he has been developing theological distance education programs. We are grateful for the invaluable support Richard gives Thirdmill Seminary as our chief course developer and also as a professor.

Richard and his wife, Angelica, love to travel, translate and experience the grace of God in many cultural contexts.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Two Liberian students are part of our first graduating class. Pray for both Darius Kerkulah and Martin Yarkay as they complete their final Capstone Project and Portfolio and graduate in August.

Liberia needs trained leaders committed to proclaiming the truth of God's Word with faithfulness to counter the spread of false teaching like the prosperity gospel.

Thirdmill Seminary exists to provide affordable access to a multilingual theological education so global church leaders can study Scripture where they serve: in Liberia and beyond.

FIRST GRADUATION

The first Thirdmill Seminary bilingual graduation ceremony will be held August 26, 2023, at 11:00 a.m.
